

THE PLYMOUTH DEMOCRAT.

H. B. DICKSON, of Dickson & Co., went east some days since to purchase a new stock of hardware, which will soon be here and ready to sell at the low figures that house is notorious for selling at.

INWOOD, we are informed, is to be the future name of the thriving village, formerly known as Piersonville, in this County. Mr. J. Apple has been appointed Postmaster at that place.

TOWN SUBSCRIBERS who do not get their papers regularly are requested to leave word at this office. Our regular carrier boy has been absent some time on a visit and will not probably be at home for two or three weeks.

WANTED:—The nights are growing cool, so say the least of them, and being out of wood for our office, we would say to those of our subscribers who calculate to pay their subscription in wood, that they will greatly oblige by bringing us some very soon.

THE ELECTION.—It is only four weeks now until the election of our State and county officers takes place. Democrats, the time for honest straightforward work is upon us—it is short let us improve it. Our friends never found napping—Every Democrat in the county knows his duty and we hope none will fail to discharge it.

THE Indianapolis Sentinel announces the death of Col. Allen May, formerly agent of State, and for many years a prominent Indiana politician. The melancholy event took place in Washington Territory, whither the Colonel had gone to seek a new location for his family. There are many who will regret this event with profound regret.

J. BROWNE, of "Honest Corner," went to New York last week to buy his Fall and Winter stock of Dry Goods and Groceries. There is not a more straightforward and upright business man in the town of Plymouth than he is, and his establishment merits the title it bears—that of "Honest Corner." Our readers will hear from him as soon as he returns.

GARRELL'S EXCHANGE.—Together with several other invited guests, on Sunday last, we partook of the hospitalities of this well kept house. Garreall's has served up the best of style, all the good things of the season. The turtle and oyster soups, as well as everything else served at his table Sunday last, was "tip top."

M. H. RICE, of the firm of Rice & Smith, returned on Saturday last from the eastern cities where he purchased a very large stock of Fall and Winter goods. This firm does a lively, flourishing business and probably offers some of the best bargains given in the place. Some of their new goods have already arrived, we believe, and the balance will be turning along soon. Indorsements to purchasers will be sent forth more fully in their new advertisement which will appear in our next issue.

D. McWILLIAMS has just brought on another stock of goods suited to the season and his large trade. He has been here only some six months, but in that short time he has by his liberality and fair dealing gotten up a very extensive and paying trade. He is indeed to his liberal advertising as much as anything else for his success in business. A man at this age does business in proportion to the extent to which he advertises his business—Mc. will have in a new column advertisement next week.

HENRY ADAMS,—Our friends, Dr. O. Bird and John Miller, are bound to get their lights shone, "by giving the public notice that they are ready to wait on them, and accordingly advertise in this week's paper. The Democrat has such a large circulation in Marshall County, and elsewhere, that is a most valuable medium for advertising. We hope the Merchants, Manufacturers, and others in Bremen, will follow the example of the above named gentlemen—for no other plan is equal to it, either in bringing a man, his business, or his Town into notice.

THE STRAIGHT TICKET.—Already we hear of leading, dishonest, corrupt and designing Republicans offering to trade votes with Democrats. We say to our Democratic friends first, last, and all the time—have nothing to do with them to tell them how dishonest you believe them to be. Democrats may rest assured of one thing and that is, the Republicans will vote the straightest Republican tickets and keep in their sleeve at every election to vote for their candidates. We have no candidates to trade or sacrifice. Vote the straight ticket and we will elect them all.

"No Tax"—Mastingly took up most part of a column denouncing that he called working men, "drag tags." Deny it as often and as strong as he may, the fact will remain that he was the first man in this community to apply the term to laboring men. When Mr. Packard used the term he applied it to renegades from all parties. The old turn-coat understands very well the application, as he is a renegade—a "drag tag" that the Democratic party is well rid of. The term was intended for just such scapegoats as he is, and he applies it to working men. He also delights in calling the tradesmen of the country, "greasy mechanics." Nobody else has thought of calling them such a name only Mattingly, and he has.

A FEAST WHAT WAS & FEAST.—Saturday evening last, the good Republican ladies of our town got up the only real "feast" we have heard of for some time. It was not intended for a "feast of reason," (fit had been they would not have had Miller Republicans candidate for the Senate, etc.) but it was intended as a "feast" of "good things," which the ladies had prepared to take to Bremen. We are under obligations to a much esteemed lady friend, for an invitation to attend the "feast" but, owing to previous engagements we were compelled to decline. We understand that they had a "good time" a "feast" of good things and a "flow of soul," and a song that "took 'em all down." Some of our Democrat boys who do not like to be coquettish, say it exhibited "bad taste" on the part of some of the musicians of the evening. We don't know what to believe about it, don't think it would show that we are very well acquainted with the boys to accuse them of being over-nice, but we rather think we would be more loth to believe that the ladies would sing anything that propriety would dictate to them they should not. The boys must be mad about something.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, Sept. 6th, by George A. McEachin, Esq., Mr. Henry Hantz, [Democrat] to Miss Sarah Montgomery, [Democrat], daughter of Mr. R. Montgomery, [Democrat] all of Bremen, [Democrat], Marshall co., Ind.

DIED.—In Walnut township, in this county, Aug. 28th, Isaac, aged about 17 years, son of Benjamin Barrett.

At Tiverton City, Sep. 6th, of Bilious fever, J. Baker Falconer, aged — years.

Mr. Falconer was greatly respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss.

S. & M. BECKER.

17th.—The demand for Dr. Bell's Vegetable Worm Destroyer continues to increase at a rate that tasks the Drugs energy to its utmost, to keep up the supply. It is indeed a wonderful remedy, presenting to the palate, as it does, a taste as simple and pleasant as candy drops, but operating with infinite certainty to destroy and expel all worms from the intestines.

Bonnieville Democrat.

NERVOUS HEADACHE.—Rev. W. G. Howard, Pastor of the First Baptist church at Chicago, Illinois who has been a great sufferer from nervous headache, but who has experienced entire relief from it by the use of WILSON'S PILLS, in a letter, dated June 15th, 1860, says: "During the past year I have been taking a great variety of medicines prescribed by Allopathic and Homoeopathic physicians, but all have failed, and I had relinquished all hope of relief, until I was induced to resort to WILSON'S PILLS. These have effectually relieved me, in repeated instances of late, and I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend them to others who are similarly affected." This sovereign remedy is sold by J. B. Fainestock & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets, Pittsburgh, to whom orders for supplies should be addressed, and by Pershing & Co., Plymouth.

Sept. 6th, 1860.

and Medicines to the room one door east of Patterson & Cleveland's store on LaPorte street, Plymouth, Indiana, where he keeps continually to his virtues, he is compelled, in experiencing immediate want, and has since always found it in his power to meet it.

On further investigation he found that the last mentioned attribute to his improved powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the priests of the Sun. Sometimes afterwards the gentleman in conversation with a priest, obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and informed where the medicine he used was found, of which it was composed.

The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the ministrations of the author, and the miraculous healing powers of their priests.

Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several ladies and gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Perú for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague, and Bilious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions, on receipt of one dollar.
